

Sommaire

Abstract	11
Résumé	13
Acronyms	14
Notice	15
Authors and contributions	16
Introduction.....	18

Part 1

Lebanon : A Century of Unrest and Wars

State formation in Lebanon and regional geopolitics	24
Walid Bakhos and Éric Verdeil
Lebanon and the transformation of the Middle East	24
Population movement and population growth	25
Territorialization of the State: A Contested Process	26
Walid Bakhos and Éric Verdeil
Territorial divisions and state control over the Lebanese territory	26
Territorial administration and decentralization.....	26
A Country Scared by Wars Inscribed in Regional Geopolitics.....	28
Éric Verdeil
The Civil War: international tensions and foreign interventions	28
The 2006 war	29
The Geopolitics of Lebanon in the Renewed Regional Tensions	30
Fabrice Balanche
Lebanon at the heart of regional tensions.....	30
The Syrian issue	31

A Dysfunctional Political System.....	34
Éric Verdeil
Gridlocked institutions	32
A rigid system based on religious and clan affiliations	32
The collusion between political and business elites.....	33
 A Decade of Violence	 34
Fabrice Balanche and Éric Verdeil
The resurgence of political violence.....	34
The return of militias	35

Part 2

Population and migration

The Population of Lebanon: the Enigma.....	38
Éric Verdeil and Bruno Dewailly
Internal Migration and Spatial Change	40
Éric Verdeil
International Migration and the Lebanese Diaspora	42
Éric Verdeil and Bruno Dewailly
A numerous group disseminated across the world	42
Emigraton: an obligation, an opportunity?	42
The Influx of Syrian Refugees in Lebanon.....	44
Fabrice Balanche and Éric Verdeil
A spatial and demographic upheaval.....	44
Housing	45
The Integration of Refugees in Lebanon: A Highly Precarious Situation.....	46
Fabrice Balanche and Éric Verdeil
Employment and education	46
A changing policy context.....	47

Part 3

An Unbalanced Economy: the Growth of Inequality

Lebanon in its Sub-Region: Beyond an Average Level of Development, Tremendous Inequalities ...	50
Bruno Dewailly
An early and uneven demographic transition	50
A service-based and rentier economy.....	50
A level of human development concealing wide internal disparities	51
Lebanon and the Gulf Monarchies: An Increased Dependence	52
Bruno Dewailly
Intensifying migration to the Gulf countries and remittances	52
Predominance but decline in investments from the Arab Gulf countries	53
A Predominant Banking and Financial Sector.....	54
Bruno Dewailly
A small link in the Arab and Western Financial networks	54
International expansion of the banking sector and offshore finance.....	54
Restructuring and development of the national banking sector.....	55
A Dynamic Yet Unbalanced Trade.....	56
Bruno Dewailly
The hypertrophy of the Beirut hub.....	56
A strong dependence on the imports of tradable commodities	56
The geography of the Lebanese trade	57
An Unsustainable Growth.....	58
Bruno Dewailly
An increasingly service-based economy and the predominance of non-tradable goods	58
Agriculture, Industry and tourism: under-exploited potentials	58
The Worrisome Growth of Inequality and Poverty	60
Bruno Dewailly
Growing wealth inequality, overall impoverishment and increasing indebtedness	60
Tripoli: heightened inequality and increasing poverty	61
Gender Equality: An Unfinished Quest.....	62
Marie Bonte
Access to education and higher education	62
Political under-representation	63
Women's and women's rights mobilization	63
A Gender and Ethnic Division of Labor.....	64
Marie Bonte
Economic domination	64
Female migrant workers in Lebanon, between oppression and diversified paths	65

Part 4 Intense Urbanization

A strong Urbanization Thrust	68
Ghaleb Faour and Éric Verdeil
Rural and Natural Areas under Pressure	70
Ghaleb Faour, Éric Verdeil and Walid Bakhos
Urbanization in the mountains and rural areas	70
Coastal areas : the example of Sarafand	71
Disputes over the Maritime Public Domain	72
Éric Verdeil, Ghaleb Faour with the Dictaphone Group
Land Dynamics in Beirut: Towers and Gentrification	74
Vicken Ashkarian and Christine Moujabed

Part 5 Major Environmental Issues

Climate Change: Contrasted Trends?.....	78
Amin Chaban and Claire Gillette
Contrasted climate trends nationwide	78
A growing urban heat island effect?.....	79
Risks(I): Forest Fire, Mass Movements and Human Activities	80
Chadi Abdallah with the assistance of Claire Gillette
From forest to suburban fires?.....	80
Mass movements	81
Risks(II): Floods and Human Activities	82
Chadi Abdallah
An increasingly frequent phenomenon?	82
Significant consequences on agricultural land and infrastructure.....	82
A Country Facing a High Seismic Risk	84
ANR Libris
Major faults, moderate seismicity but destructive historic earthquakes	85
A real seismic vulnerability.....	85
A Partial Institutional Response.....	86
Chadi Abdallah, Stéphane Cartier and Claire Gillette
Climate change, an emerging issue	86
Risks: the gradual implementation of various projects.....	87
A building code at an embryonic stage.....	87

Part 6

Crisis-Stricken Public Services

Lebanon, a Water Tower	90
Christèle Allès
A relatively water-rich country in the region	90
A risk of water scarcity?	91
A Water Tower under Pressure	92
Christèle Allès
The degradation of water resources	92
Unequal access to drinking water	93
A Proactive Public Policy, Results Still Pending	94
Christèle Allès
An unfinished reform	94
The revival of large-scale projects	95
Divise Waters	96
Christèle Allès
Land and management-related conflicts	96
Sharing transboundary waters	97
Power and Energy: Dependency on Hydrocarbon, Pollution and Shortage	98
Éric Verdeil
Increasing uses	98
An automobile-dependent society	99
The Electricity Crisis	100
Éric Verdeil
A worsening shortage	100
A rising demand despite consumption inequality	100
Which alternatives?	101
The Carbage Crisis.....	102
Jihad Farah and Éric Verdeil
A chaotic but spatially differentiated management.....	102
Municipalities facing the crisis: the example of Bikfaya.....	103

Part 7

Territorial Governance, Urban and National Planning

Urban and Land-Use Planning: A Legacy of State Intervention	106
Walid Bakhos and Éric Verdeil
The Chehabist legacy	106
Post-war reconstruction: a multifaceted series of voluntarist measures	106
Top-Down Urban and Regional Planning: the Role of National-Level State Actors in the 2010s	108
Jihad Farah , Khaled Ghoch and Vicken Achkarian
Towards negotiated planning initiatives	108
A decreasing role in urban and land-use planning	109
Reconstruction Efforts: New Approaches	110
Jihad Farah and Amanie Majed
Municipalities: New Actors in Local Development	112
Jihad Farah and Émilio Gemayel
Chiyah: Green and public spaces in a densely populated suburb	112
Ghobeiri: Providing services in informal settlements	113
Zahle: A municipal waste treatment plant	113
Dhour Choueir: A continuous and cheaper power supply	113
Municipal Unions: The Emergence of a New Territorial Unit	114
Jihad Farah, Emilio Gemayel and Dima Raydan
The Tripoli Environment and Development Observatory (TEDO)	114
Strategic planning: Land-use planning and territorial development	114
Regional strategic planning in the Akkar region	115
International cooperation to the aid of the local development	118
Jihad Farah and Wassim Abdelsater
The downside: Patchwork and inertia	118
Jihad Farah and Bouchra Tohme
An urban patchwork: Bourj Hammoud	118
Inertia: Tripoli International Fair	119
Conclusion	120
Sources and references	123