

Violent extremism webinar cycle 2021-22

FMSH – IFPO

Political participation in its “extreme” Middle Eastern context

Webinar calendar	Participants	Subject	Research area	Language
22/04/2021	Wassim Naboulsi Lebanese lawyer ad PhD researcher at the university of Sussex, UK  Iyad Kallas Media and communication consultant	The impact of rural urban relations on the militarization of the Syrian uprising  Killer identities in Syria, before and after 2011	1&4	Arabic
13/05/2021	Ayman Mhanna & Hassan Abbas (Raseef 22) & Rawad Daher	Journalism, freedom of press, sectarian and political belonging in the coverage of the Arab uprisings	3	Arabic
03/06/2021	Zouheir Ben Jannet & Fethi Rekik	Les jihadistes tunisiens ou l’engagement des jeunes en Syrie	1	French or Arabic
24/06/2021	Hala Hamze & Mohammad Sablough	HH: Reshaping the relations between justice, police, army and intelligence/ MS: The role of state institutions in combating extremism	2	Arabic
15/07/2021	Bahija Jamal	ISIS Moroccan Women in the Counter Terrorism and Human Trafficking Policies	1	Arabic
09/09/2021	Bilgehan öztürk	Countering Violent Extremism in Libya: A Peacebuilding Approach	1	English
30/09/2021	Watheq Alsadoon	Security, peacebuilding and the state in Iraq	1&4	Arabic
21/10/2021	Fatima Moussaoui & Habiba Ashraf	The influence of Iran in the MENA region & the state in Iraq and the Shia rise in the MENA Region	1&4	French

11/11/2021	Georges Fahmi	Religious reform: an effective or counterproductive means of countering violent extremism	1	Arabic
02/12/2021	Gülriş Sen & Basak Yavcan (email address?)	Assessing the Role of Women in Fighting Radicalization in Turkey	1	English
23/12/2021	Wassim Naboulsi & Samir Abdallah	WN: The impact of Rural-Urban Relations on the Militarization of the Syrian Uprising/ SA: The relationship between radical societies, their religious institutions and local communities	4	Arabic
13/01/2022	Adham Saouli	The complex relationship between sectarianism and political belongings in the Middle East	4	English

Research areas:

Area 1: commitment, governance and policies

- Militant careers, how does one become a political actor in this region of the world? What is political activism built on or what is the trajectory of political actors in the countries of the region?
- The relations between dominant political actors, the opposition and marginalization?
- Relationship between political institution, partisan institution and religious institution (duplication, alliances, conflicts...)?
- Modes of government, political discourse and practices...

Area 2: Law, fight against terrorism and penitentiary institution

- The impact of anti-terrorism laws on the treatment of violent extremism and on the organization of prisons: emergence, strengthening and extension of a specific legal framework reconfiguring the relations between justice, police, army and intelligence.

Area 3: media treatment of political and power relations

Area 4: Citizenship vs. sectarianism: public action, self-awareness, new ways of participation and political organization

The webinar will be held in the three languages, Arabic, English and French.

Steering Committee: KORTAM Marie (Ifpo-FMSH), SHARQAWI Mohammed (FMSH).